

Southshire Community School

Student Acceptable Use/Telecommunications and Network Policy summary

Southshire Community School provides older students access to the electronic network which includes internet access, networking services, videoconferencing, computer equipment and related devices in preparation for success in life and work in the 21st Century. This document contains the rules and procedures for student's acceptable use of the SCS electronic network.

Computer and Internet activity is monitored for all individuals, period. The students should have no expectation of privacy in their use of school devices and network resources. The staff may revoke or suspend user access if these terms are violated.

Parent/Guardian Authorizations

Please circle all that apply

Media Release

- I give my permission to have my child interviewed/photographed/videotaped by the news media/school which may result in print, video, or web production.

Yes No

- I give my permission to have the school feature my child's schoolwork.

Yes No

Acceptable Use of Computer Network

- I give permission for my child to access all components of the school's computer network and release the school from any and all claims and damages of any nature arising from the use of this network.

Yes No

Student Name _____

Parent Signature _____

This form must be completed and signed